John:

I seem to recall that several years ago we did some assessments on employees who had been around for awhile to determine suitability, etc., for different assignments and other reasons.

Your comments and perhaps [redacted] would be very helpful to me in responding to Mr. Colby's question on this subject. I would like to answer him by the end of next week if possible - 18 AUG 72

Jack -

We are properly

happy with the contribution

CMS' psychological assessment exercise makes to the selection of new employees and career guidance at the outset. The attached article gives in my mind the possibility of a "mid-career" assessment ~~to identify~~ strong and weak points at that stage, on training & leadership development purposes if not for raw selection -

I'd be interested in your reaction whether there is anything in
